Notes from Neil Justice

William Justice was born in 1625. some say in southwest England or even Scotland but most say Wales. I have not been able to find anything that traces him back to Justices involved in English-Scottish border conflicts in the 11th and 12th Centuries, but I think the family's origin is near Perthshire. William sailed on the "Edward" out of Bristol and arrived in Jamestown in 1650, paying for 24 passengers, one of whom was Rebecca Frame, who I conjecture was the younger sister of Mary Frame. Mary was the daughter of Captain John Frame (1608? - 1655) and Ann. Immigration: 1620 Indentured to Capt. John Harvey, believed emigrated to VA on "The Southampton" in 1622. My research shows Mary has married Thomas CHAPPELL (sp) and Nicholas MOZIER before marrying William on 26 May 1656 in in Weynoke Parish, Charles City County, VA.

William was a in Member of the "House of Burgesses", Ship Owner "EDWARD" of Bristol, England, and Indentured Servent. Owned the Kitawan Plantation in Charles City County. William obtained land 1198 acres for bringing passengers over and his marriage to Mary, whose father had no male heirs. I conjecture they might have been Cavaliers or at least royalist sympathizers seeing how Charles I had been beheaded in the year before William's arrival and the fact that the voyage took at least six months. There was a lot of royalist settlement in Virginia at this time. In 1661, William sold some of the land to his neighbor William Harrison, who is an ancestor to the two Harrison preidents. William and Mary had (I believe) four children who became the ancestors of a broad range of Justices in America. I'm personally descended from his son William Justinian Justice. The year after William died, Mary went to Accomack County and married a fourth time.

If any one knows more, please write.

William Justice was born in 1625. some say in southwest England or even Scotland but most say Wales. I have not been able to find anything that traces him back to Justices involved in English-Scottish border conflicts in the 11th and 12th Centuries, but I think the family's origin is near Perthshire. William sailed on the "Edward" out of Bristol and arrived in Jamestown in 1650, paying for 24 passengers, one of whom was Rebecca Frame, who I conjecture was the younger sister of Mary Frame. Mary was the daughter of Captain John Frame (1608? - 1655) and Ann. Immigration: 1620 Indentured to Capt. John Harvey, believed emigrated to VA on "The Southampton" in 1622. My research shows Mary has married Thomas CHAPPELL (sp) and Nicholas MOZIER before marrying William on 26 May 1656 in in Weynoke Parish, Charles City County, VA.

William was a in Member of the "House of Burgesses", Ship Owner "EDWARD" of Bristol, England, and Indentured Servent. Owned the Kitawan Plantation in Charles City County. William obtained land 1198 acres for bringing passengers over and his marriage to Mary, whose father had no male heirs. I conjecture they might have been Cavaliers or at least royalist sympathizers seeing how Charles I had been beheaded in the year before William's arrival and the fact that the voyage took at least six months. There was a lot of royalist settlement in Virginia at this time. In 1661, William sold some of the land to his neighbor William Harrison, who is an ancestor to the two Harrison preidents. William and Mary had (I believe) four children who became the ancestors of a broad range of Justices in America. I'm personally descended from his son William Justinian Justice. The year after William died, Mary went to Accomack County and married a fourth time.

If any one knows more, please write.
